CAPSTONE PROJECT PHASE I, II & III

PRESENTED BY – LT 4

Hunny Gupta | Swati Bahety | Yash Arora | Soumya Soni

PHASE - I

"Taste the Fruit, Not the Sugar"

100% Organic

Sugar-Free

Cold-Pressed

BRAND OVERVIEW

Premium-quality, guilt-free fruit nutrition for health-conscious & young consumers.

PRIMARY SEGMENT

- Fitness-focused (18–35)
- Diet-conscious consumers

SECONDARY SEGMENT

- Working professionals (25–40)
- College students & young adults (17–25)

CONSUMER PERSONAS

👤 Harshita · Age 20 · Student

- Budget-conscious, avoids sugar
- Active on Instagram & Blinkit/Zepto
- Seeks clean, no-preservative brands

👤 Varun · Age 26 · Young Fresher

- Functional energy, post-workout use
- Replaces soft drinks & excess coffee
- Discovers via YouTube & Instagram

Key Insight: Both personas want sugar free, clean-label beverages they can trust daily.

COMPETITOR ANALYSIS

Mass FMCG brands dominate

Dabur, Paper Boat, Tropicana — high visibility, low health focus

"100% Fruit" ≠ Sugar-Free

Zero sugar rarely highlighted; misleading for health seekers

Cold-pressed = Niche

Premium pricing & low scale limit everyday adoption

Health differentiation is weak

Taste > nutrition messaging across all competitors

PHASE - II

Navigating the FruitVita customer journey from initial awareness to high speed conversion.

FUNNEL DESIGN & OBJECTIVES

- 1 TOFU - Awareness stage
Position FruitVita as a sugar-free alternative via Instagram wellness reels and influencer collaborations.
OBJECTIVE: Build brand visibility and generate curiosity among health-conscious audiences.
- 2 MOFU - Consideration Stage
Educate on cold-pressed advantages and ingredient sourcing via the website and social media listings.
OBJECTIVE: Build credibility and highlight FruitVita's affordable premium positioning.
- 3 BOFU - Conversion Stage
Leverage quick-commerce platforms (Blinkit, Zepto) for fast delivery and impulse-buy bundle deals.
OBJECTIVE: Convert interest into immediate action through convenience and attractive packaging.
